2010 EXHIBITION POLICY & APPLICATION

THE ARTIST

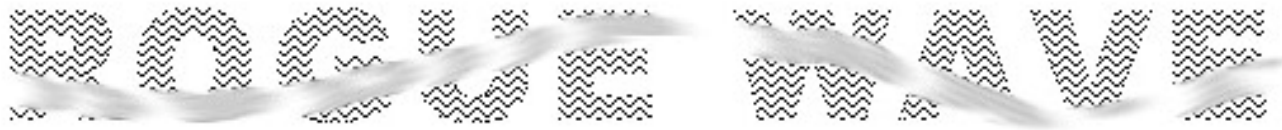

1. To confirm participation, your site location, and ensure that your installation meets criteria around safety & liability issues, artists are requested to submit proposals and this agreement by August 1, 2010 to Joanna Kidd at joakidd@sympatico.ca or by mail to Joanna Kidd, Rogue Wave 2010, 7 Oneida Avenue, Toronto, M5J 2E2. Registration fee is to be paid at that time.
2. The artist(s) will assume artistic control and responsibility of her/his work. Participants are asked to use materials and work in ways that are safe for human interaction, can endure the elements for the duration of the exhibition, and are environmentally-friendly.
3. The works of art will be exhibited from September 11 to November 6, 2010. Artists are responsible for installing their work in time for the beginning of the Rogue Wave exhibition on September 11, 2010.
4. Following the exhibition, the artist(s) is responsible for the removal of the work within one week of the closing. Participants are reminded that our liability insurance is for the duration of the exhibition only and that you are not covered should anything occur following the exhibition. Also, we have made an agreement with City Parks, Recreation and Forestry regarding the length of the exhibition that we wish to honour.

ROGUE WAVE

1. ROGUE WAVE will provide liability insurance for the duration of the exhibition. This insurance covers any potential harm to individual(s) interacting with the work. It does not cover damage to art works from weather or vandalism.
2. ROGUE WAVE will provide promotion of the exhibition through media opportunities, posters, ads, etc.
3. ROGUE WAVE will provide information on the exhibition at the Ward's Island Ferry Dock including maps for visitors for the endurance of the exhibition.
4. ROGUE WAVE will ensure that all works are properly labeled and that a security fence is installed, if necessary.
5. The ROGUE WAVE Team is committed to ensuring that the exhibition is a success and participants are satisfied with their involvement. We are available to artists for assistance and consultation.

Thank you for participating We look forward to working with you.

ROGUE WAVE 2010

April 2010

Dear Artist;

Your ROGUE WAVE Team is now preparing for ROGUE WAVE 2010, Toronto Island's eighth outdoor exhibition of installation art which will be held from September 11 to November 6, 2010.

We are asking artists to confirm their participation and submit their application by August 1, 2010. This will enable us to review submissions and site locations with the City Parks Department. Please keep in mind that works must meet the following criteria:

- Environmentally friendly;
- Can endure the elements during the exhibition;
- Safe for human interaction.

We have applied to the Toronto Arts Council to support the project and are awaiting final results on our grant application.

With your involvement in the exhibition ROGUE WAVE will provide:

- Listing on the poster;
- Inclusion in the 2500 maps we produce;
- A security fence, if necessary;
- Labels;
- Exposure to the over 2000 visitors who visit the show;
- Participation in a unique exhibition and community project that has achieved increased attention in the Toronto arts community.

We hope that you will support and participate in ROGUE WAVE 2010 and look forward to working with you. If you have further questions, please contact us.
